What mentors or dogs influenced your breeding program?

I will answer this question from a judging perspective. It has been an honor and a privilege to judge Collie specialties across the USA. My goal in the ring is to treat all exhibitors with respect and equal time to present their Collie. My major influence is and always will be the Collie Standard.

Not applicable.

Please state the top three virtues you believe are most important in relation to the Collie standard?

Again, I will answer this question from a judging perspective as this questionnaire concerns judging. My approach is to make sure to take the entire Standard into account when examining each individual exhibit. "Virtues" are important for the breeder to incorporate into their program but judging how those chosen "virtues" integrate with the Standard is my job. They must blend seamlessly and not stand apart from the total picture. We have all seen how "Piece" judging can have a negative impact on a breed.
